Welcome to Koriyama

Explore Koriyama in each season

Spring

Cherry Trees at Kaiseizan Park
Kaiseizan park is a popular place for citizens to relax, and it is also a symbol of Asaka pioneering to be the foundation of development of Koriyama City. The park is one of the best spots in Fukushima, and there are 1,000 cherry trees planted there. The trees are lit up at night when they are in full bloom.

• 10 minute drive from Koriyama I.C.

The “Deko” in “Deko Yashiki” means a doll.
This place was once part of the Miharu District, so people called the dolls produced here ‘Miharu Koma’ and ‘Miharu Ningyo’.

There are currently 4 craft-making houses that practice the traditional skills of making dolls.

TAKASHIBA DEKO YASHIKI
A traditional craft town passing down traditional skills since the Edo era
Walking around Takashiba Deko Yashiki while enjoying the traditional crafts

[Local toy painting experience course]
In Deko Yashiki, you can experience painting on the local toys, including the Miharu Hariko Doll and Miharu Goma.

[Takashiba Deko Yashiki] Originally, this was a village for craftsmen who were protected in the Miharu Domain during the Edo period (1603–1868). Takashiba Deko Yashiki is believed to have been established by a resident who came from Kyōtō in Miharu 300 years ago. These people passed on the tradition of how to make these dolls.

Explore the historical site of Asaka Reclamation

The reclamation of the plains around Kaiseizan started in 1873 and expanded to the entire Azumino area. “Asaka Reclamation”, which was the first state-operated reclamation in the Meiji era, and “Asaka Canal Cultivation” to irrigate water from Lake Inawashiro served as the foundation for Koriyama to develop.

Jurokkyo water gate (Inawashiro-machi)
The starting point of the drainage works. It was the first state-operated agricultural water project.
- 40 minute drive from Koriyama Sta.

Statue of Cornelis Johannes van Doorn (Inawashiro-machi)
The statue of a Dutch expert in hydraulic engineering, who contributed by designing the canal, stands by the water gate.

Kaiseikan
The museum exhibits materials related to the History of the Asaka Reclamation and Asaka Canal.
- 13 minutes by bus (Fukushima Transportation) from Koriyama Sta.

Numagami Power Plant
The hydroelectric power plant was Japan’s first facility to transmit high-voltage power over long distances.
- 40 minute drive from Koriyama Sta.

Hayama Park
You can walk through the numerous Torii gates to the front shrine with its solemn atmosphere. It is known as a spiritual place to many people in and out of the local area.
- 13 minute drive from Koriyama Sta.

Asaka Historical Museum
In 1889, the main building of the former Fukushima junior high school was established on the site of Asaka Reclamation. It is now open to the public as a historical museum.
- 10 minutes by bus (Fukushima Transportation) from Koriyama Sta.

Asaka Kunitsuko Shrine
A historic shrine that is said to have been established in ancient times. Although it is located in the center of the city and near Koriyama Sta., it is also a healing place with abundant greenery.
- 5 minute walk from Koriyama Sta.

Kaiseizan-Daijingu Shrine
A historic shrine that is said to have been established in ancient times. It is called ‘Oise-sama in Tohoku’, and many visitors come here during both New Year and cherry blossom season.
- 15 minutes by bus (Fukushima Transportation) from Koriyama Sta.

Takayashiki Inari Shrine
You can walk through the numerous Torii gates to the front shrine with its solemn atmosphere. It is known as a spiritual place to many people in and out of the local area.
- 13 minute drive from Koriyama Sta.

There is lots to see, with the attractiveness of the origin of Asaka Canal, Lake Inawashiro!

Manners and Etiquette in Japan

In town

It is not good to eat something while walking. Also, please do not throw leftovers or rubbish onto the street.

In Japanese inns and hotels

Please leave your key at the front desk when you go out. Please return the key when you check out.

In restaurants

You may not be able to use your credit card in small shops or ramen shops.

In hot springs

Hot spring facilities are divided by gender. Please be aware of this and do not make mistakes when you use them.

Have good manners and make your trip more enjoyable!
Free Wi-Fi
