May 16: Emergency System 'J-ALERT' Test

On the 16th of May around 11:00, the Japanese national government will test its emergency information system J-Alert. The alarm will sound and alert messages will be sent per radio, e-mail, social media etc., so if you hear the alarm or get an alert message, be informed that it is only a test. Nonetheless, a good opportunity to check your emergency preparedness. For more info on emergency preparedness, read the multilingual Koriyama Living Guide at www.city.koriyama.fukushima.jp/foreign.

Delegation from Essen City, Germany

On April 23rd and 24th, Koriyama City received a delegation from the German city of Essen for a visit to city hall and research institutes, universities and hospitals in Koriyama under the International Urban Cooperation (IUC) program.

The European Union launched a program for international cooperation between cities in the EU with counterparts in the rest of the world. In Japan, Koriyama is one of the 5 participating cities. In December 2017 Koriyama signed a memorandum for cooperation with the city of Essen in Germany. Essen is located in the region of North-Rhine Westphalia, which has extensive ties with Fukushima Prefecture in the fields of renewable energy and medical device development.

Besides the site visits, the delegation also participated in a joint seminar in which they introduced the state of development of renewable energy and medical devices in Essen to the participating companies and students at the College of Engineering – Nihon University, which Koriyama hopes will lead to more grassroots cooperation in the future. For more information on the IUC-program, visit: <http://www.iuc.eu>

Officially Opened: the Atami Football Center

Koriyama City has a brand-new soccer facility in Bandai-Atami, officially opened on the 1st of May. Named the Atami Football Center, the new center offers a 105m – 68m pitch (JFA-approved artificial turf), a club houses with all necessary facilities and top-notch lighting for training sessions and games at night. It is located at a stone's throw from Bandai-Atami Station (2 min walk).

Funding for the new facilities were provided by the Japan Football Association (JFA)'s Prefectural Football Center Maintenance Program, aimed to support sports activities like soccer, as well as regional revitalization and tourism. The facilities can be rented at very reasonable prices. Please check the website for all the details:

Koriyama International Exchange Association (KIEA)

The Koriyama International Exchange Association was established on February 24th 1990, in order to support and promote international understanding towards foreign countries and residents among Koriyama's citizens. Another aim is supporting civil activity and international friendship through pro-active international exchange activities using Koriyama's characteristic qualities.

KIEA-staff can be found at the International Exchange Salon, on the 2nd floor of Koriyama City Hall's Main Bld. 2F and the International Policy Division (5F). Feel free to walk in with questions about Koriyama or KIEA's activities. There are also books and DVDs which can be borrowed, including language workbooks and travel guidebooks. KIEA currently has 177 private- and 88 corporate members. Members get discounts on classes and activities, and there are member-exclusive events. With the membership fee of ¥3000 per year, you support KIEA's activities. Read all about KIEA's activities in the bi-monthly KIP (Koriyama Information Paper) or find information about KIEA and its events on the official Facebook page: www.facebook.com/KoriyamaIEA
